In the heart of Würzburg's Old Town one of Germany’s most picturesque and enchanting Christmas Markets attracts thousan every year. The Christmas market's tradition dates back to the early 19th century. The historic market square with its Gothic C Mary and its abundance of Baroque architecture provide a scenic backdrop for almost 100 wooden stalls. Choose from hand decorations ranging from artful glass, straw, pewter and pottery to wooden toys.

Look out for original knitwear, creative jewelry, mouth-watering delicatessen or tasty gingerbread for your loved ones. Sampl Franconian Christmas cookies and roasted almonds, and don't forget to sip the traditional Glühwein, a popular hot red wine spices such as cinnamon, cloves, and orange peel.
