The Museum für Franken houses the world's most comprehensive collection of works by the Medieval sculptor and woodcarver Tilma Riemenschneider. The 5400 sqm museum space is also home to exhibits by regional artists. Of special interest are the pre-historic collection, the artifacts of the Franconian wine culture and the anthropological collection that features historical traditional clothing. Discover masterful paintings, exquisite furniture and magnificent arts and crafts from the early ages until the nineteenth century.

The restored “Fürstenbau” (prince bishops' residence) at Fortress Marienberg houses not only the renovated living quarters, but also th department of city history of the Museum für Franken. Of special interest are the collection of gold jewelry, the collection of liturgical vestments, and two models of the city: Würzburg in 1525 and Würzburg in 1945.
