The unique Würzburg Flair

Alte Mainbrücke and Fortress Marienberg

Why is Würzburg so popular? Many people come visit time and time again, not because of the location alongside the Main River and the ease of getting here. No, it has everything to do with the unique atmosphere that simply makes you feel good.

It's a special mix of culture and ambiance, of world heritage and wine festivals, of modern and classical music, of avant-garde and age-old traditions, of sciences and party atmosphere that makes this town so popular. The stunning historical architecture provides the perfect setting for everything Würzburg has to offer. At every step you can experience why Würzburg is a member of the "Historic Highlights of Germany". There are many hotels and restaurants that are looking forward to your visit. – Enjoy the local Franconian wine, a glass of Franconian sparkling wine and other culinary treats from the region.

The Residence Palace – A UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Site

Balthasar Neumann, Europe's greatest architect of the Baroque era, built the Residence Palace. This former home of the prince bishops of Würzburg is nicknamed "the castle above all castles." The grand staircase of the Residence Palace is deemed the most beautiful staircase in the world. Other renowned artists whose names are inextricably linked to this lovely city on the Main river are Tilman Riemenschneider and Giovanni Battista Tiepolo.

Würzburg is not a fake movie backdrop but a real, vibrant city. The view from the Fortress Marienberg across the many towers rising above the city – the cathedral, the Marienkapelle, the town hall, and the Käppele – is breathtaking and unforgettable.

The Museums: Visit, Experience, and Learn

At the Museum für Franken, you will find a large collection of works by Tilman Riemenschneider. The Museum am Dom offers a unique collection of modern and contemporary art. The award-winning Museum im Kulturspeicher offers Concrete Art in a truly extraordinary setting. If you are interested in items from the antiquity, then visit the Martin von Wagner Museum. There is something here for any interest!

Fascinating Tradition: Franconian Wine, the Bocksbeutel and Typical Restaurants

Our recommendation: Quaint restaurants and traditional wine taverns offering local fare. Of course, you can also opt for international cuisine at five star restaurants. And don't forget that this is one of the best wine-growing areas in Germany. So don't miss the opportunity to sample a local wine from a Bocksbeutel bottle. This should be a mandatory part of any visit... For an up-close experience of the Franconian joie de vivre, visit one of the many local wine festivals, tour a wine cellar or participate in a wine tasting.

One in Four Residents is a College Student Würzburg is home to about 36,000 college students. Wilhelm Conrad Röntgen once studied here and discovered X-rays that have transformed our lives. In 1901, he was awarded the Nobel Prize in Physics for his work. There are a total of 14 Nobel Prize winners that once studied and lectured at the university and helped further its excellent reputation. The Technical University of Applied Sciences Würzburg-Schweinfurt offers more than 40 different Bachelor's and Master's degree programs. The University of Music Würzburg has produced many well-known musicians, among them the world-famous singers Waltraud Meier and Diana Damrau.

A Unique Setting: Mozart Meets African diversity

Are you looking for classical music or African drum beats? We have got you covered! The Africa Festival in Würzburg is the largest African Culture Festival in Europe and Würzburg also hosts the acclaimed Mozart Festival, an outstanding classical music concert series. If you need more: There is the Umsonst & Draussen Festival, the International Film Weekend, the STRAMU street art festival, the Bach Days, to name just a few.

Getting Here Is Easy: We are Located in the Heart of Europe

As much as locals enjoy the Franconian heritage, they also take advantage of the easy access to the rest of Europe. Würzburg sits at the crossroads of numerous new and old traffic routes. Three major interstate highways intersect here: Autobahn A3 Cologne – Würzburg – Munich, Autobahn A7 Hamburg – Würzburg – Ulm, and Autobahn A81 Stuttgart – Heilbronn – Würzburg. Furthermore, there are 350 train departures daily, 70 of which are high-speed trains, and you are only an hour's drive from Frankfurt International Airport. If you like the water, you can take a boat trip on the Main river to Sommerhausen or a leisurely cruise to Veitshöchheim and the most beautiful Rococo garden in all of Europe. Since the Rhine-Danube canal opened, the Main river has taken off as a boat-touring destination. In 2023 over 900 river cruises stopped in Würzburg. And don't forget to explore the scenic Romantic Road. There is no shortage of great options here.

A great number and variety of events are taking place here all year long. To assist you in planning your trip, we have listed some of the best ones on the following pages. For updated information, please refer to our website: www.wuerzburg.de/events

Themed guided tours

Medieval Würzburg

The topic of this guided tour is Würzburg in the Middle Ages. You will learn about guilds and brotherhoods while walking the streets around market square where the craftsmen used to live. At the Cathedral of St. Kilian you get to marvel at several sculptures by Tilman Riemenschneider. Then the tour takes you past Riemenschneider's former residence to the Alte Mainbrücke (Old Main River Bridge) and the fabulous views of the vineyards and the Fortress Marienberg. You will learn many interesting facts about medieval life and the peasants' wars. Also covered will be minnesong since the remains of the famous minnesinger Walther von der Vogelweide are said to rest in the Lusamgärtlein at the Neumünster.

Jewish Life in Würzburg Würzburg has been home to citizens of Jewish faith for more than 900 years. In the Middle Ages, Würzburg was an important center of Jewish faith and philosophy thanks to the Talmud School and its rabbis. In the following centuries times of persecution happened periodically. In the 17th century, the prince-bishops evicted lews from the city and surrounding areas and it was not until the 19th century that a lewish community got reestablished in Würzburg. The Nazi dictatorship eclipsed with the deportation of lews to concentration camps. Today, the Jewish community of Würzburg is again 1100 members strong. The guided tour provides an overview of the religion and history of Würzburg's lews and visits important sights of town, such as the Juliusspital and the Marienkapelle.

Women in Würzburg Some of Würzburg's female residents have become famous well past the city limits. Well known names include Emy Roeder, Gertraud Rostosky and Margret Boveri. Many others have not come to fame. Yet all of them have helped shape the city, whether they did laundry, sold goods on the markets, were persecuted as witches or revered as nuns. The guided tour visits many of the famous sights of town and uncovers many little known surprises.

Witch-Hunts in Würzburg Witch-hunts did take place in Würzburg. The height of the persecution was reached in the early 17th century when women were burned en masse. In those days, any citizen - regardless of gender or status - was subject to libel, which could mean death. The guided tour visits historical sights such as the cathedral of St. Kilian, the Neumünster, and the town hall to illustrate the religious and secular causes of the witch-hunts of the 17th century.

The Mainviertel – Würzburg's Oldest Part of Town

To this day, you can experience a piece of the original Würzburg in the Main- or Burkarderviertel. Historically, this is where the fishermen and craftspeople used to live. The guided tour takes you to the Deutschhauskirche (founded in the 12th century by the Order of Teutonic Knights), the former Hofspital (hospital) and the romanic/ gothic era Burkarderkirche. Burkard, the first bishop of Würzburg erected a Benedictine monastery at this location in the 8th century. Also located in the Mainviertel is the first creation by Balthasar Neumann. Last but not least, explore the remnants of a 17th century water canal and its lock. The canal allowed larger vessels to avoid the smaller lock at the Alte Mainbrücke (Old Main River Bridge).

Chain reaction -Nothing for loners

Our team building activity "chain reaction" depends on team spirit, precision and creativity. Equipped with hammer, nails, tape, ropes, boards, pipes and much more, you build a large course through which a ball must roll completely. To do this, teams are first formed, which then take care of the various stages of construction. There are no limits to creativity because the most important thing is to achieve the common goal. Special aids, such as cordless screwdrivers or cable ties can be earned by solving additional tricky riddles. At the end there is an angled, several meters long track, which only works if the strategy is right, the agreements are clear and the cooperation in the own team as well as with the other teams runs smoothly. Speaking of running... of course there is also a time limit.

Vineyard Rally with tasting Allow yourself to be captivated by the picturesque vineyards in and around Würzburg. We actively provide insights into the Franconian wine tradition and the treasures of the vintner. We welcome you with a glass of Franconian sparkling wine in the renowned vineyard locations of Würzburg. We form teams of up to 10 people. Self-appointed team names increase the group cohesion. The questionnaire which is handed out to the teams contains knowledge questions regarding the subject of wine. Discover stations in the vineyards where creativity and team spirit is required. At the Sensorium, all senses such as sight, smell, and taste are sharpened and tested on the subject of wine. At the end of the rally, the scripts are evaluated and each participant of the winning team receives a certificate.

Price incl. a welcome Secco and wine-tasting station (3 vine vari- 1) per person. Snacks possible on eties) 1 bottle per team. Snacks request. possible on request.

City Rally with wine tasting, Würzburg

Excellent group activity that leads participant teams through the historical city. Teams face questions concerning history and colloquialisms as well as tasks that need to be accomplished. Along the way, historical characters point the teams in the right direction and provide guidance. At the activity stations, members can prove their agility, creativity, poetic prowess as well as knightly discipline. Team spirit is a must in order to collect bonus points. At the end there is a short award ceremony for the winning team and a glass of Silvaner for each guest. Snacks possible on request.

Upon request, food and drink can be included as well. We can recommend excellent cozy taverns with historical courtyards.

Wooden Kart Team Challenge

Construction, creativity, strategy, fun! Experience this extraordinary team action with your co-workers, colleagues, or as a private group. The teams set up their own racing team (e.g. product reference/ department), design their racing overalls, design and build their wooden kart. Each team eagerly awaits victory - however, only he or she who does not slip up in the pit lane wins the race. This event takes place in the sense of team spirit, creativity and goal-oriented actions. 1. Team spirit is needed. Individual vehicles can be built with our wooden kart kits. The components can be screwed together or put together in almost any way.

2. Creativity is needed. The racing overalls are individually designed by the teams. 3. Targeted action is needed. Points are awarded not only for the race victory, but also for the constructors' championship.

The design of the vehicles and the racing overalls are equally important factors. Experience this unique teambuilding programme with your group.

The Hunt for Mr. X

Get to know Würzburg actively. This exciting action game is based on the board game "Scotland Yard hunts Mr. X". Help us to catch the escaped villain, but be careful he is extremely dangerous, and the arrest is only legally binding through the procurement of his Mr. X label. He is on foot. Keep an eye out! First gather information in the training camp of Scotland Yard before you set off in pursuit with your team. Several of the tasks originate from the field of experiential education and can only be solved with team spirit. The pursuit lasts about one hour. If he is not caught in this time, then he has won and is free. X feels very safe; he does not hide, but he may use side streets.

Price incl. 1 glass Silvaner (0,25 I) per person. Snacks possible on request.

Raft construction in the team

Our raft construction team event is always a mix of team training, role-sharing amongst colleagues and a high fun factor in the great outdoors. Grow beyond yourself within the team and improve your collaboration. In small groups of 5-8 participants, we plan, build and test the self-made rafts. Create unique rafts out of barrels, ropes, boards and lots of good ideas, spontaneity and creativity. Teamwork is needed because the more efficiently you work with your colleagues, the better the result. After the construction phase is over, the rafts go to water. Will the knots hold? Does it float? If the raft is buoyant, the participants are ready for the race. Usually, this is followed by a wild chase on the water, combined with action packed tasks that can only be solved together as a team.

Franconian Wine

Wine and hiking, cellar tour and culture, indulgence and going for a walk: Franconia has some of the best things to offer. You can choose between a big, historical wine estate such as the Staatlicher Hofkeller and a small family-operated winery, between an up-and-coming new wine grower and a traditional, worldclass wine estate. Wine, in all its colors and taste variations, simply is the number one topic here. The best introduction to Franconian wine is a cellar tour or a wine tasting. Maybe you and your group prefer to visit one of the many local wine festivals. But don't forget to enjoy the unique atmosphere of the "Brückenschoppen" on the Alte Mainbrücke (Old Main River Bridge) drinking a glass of wine, or two. And the traditional Franconian wine bottle is the Bocksbeutel - it makes a great souvenir.

ZEITEN ÅNDERS SICH, USD TI

Wine Estate Bürgerspital Zum Heiligen Geist

The Bürgerspital wine estate has existed for over 700 years in Franconia. On 120 hectares of vineyards, primarily the classic grape varieties Riesling, Silvaner and Pinot are grown. The best wines are filled in "Bocksbeutel" (flat and bulbous bottles), which has been the most prestigious certificate of highest quality for us at the Bürgerspital for almost 300 years. The most valuable treasure of the wine estate are the unique vineyards, especially the "Würzburg Stein-Berg" and the monopole "Stein-Harfe". They shape the character and style of the Bürgerspital wines, which can be perfectly enjoyed by themselves or as accompaniments to food. The Bürgerspital is a founding member of the VDP (Verband Deutscher Prädikatsweingüter -Association of the leading German Wine Estates) and ranks its wines according to VDP classification: The closer the origin, the higher the quality. In order to identify the predicate wines, the bottles bear the eagle and grape symbol. The wine estate itself is part of the foundation Bürgerspital zum Hl. Geist. The original purpose of the foundation was to care for the elderly which continues to this day. With every bottle of wine sold, this social commitment is supported.

WineWorld Juliusspital

In 1576 prince-bishop Julius Echter founded the charitable foundation Juliusspital in Würzburg.

The winery is part of this foundation and has always used the revenues to finance social projects. The cadre for the wine's individuality lies in 180 hectares of vineyard properties in the most famous wine region in Franconia. Maximum value is placed on respecting nature - sustainability for the vines and responsibility for future generations.

Cellar Tours and Wine Tastings

Wine is a cultural treasure and wine consumption is a joy. Experience both during a 90-minute tour of the Juliusspital wine estate. Take a trip through more than 440 years of (wine) history and get an inside view of one of the largest wineries in Germany. Immerse yourself in the realm of the cellar master, experience the fascinating excitement between modernly designed wine press houses and a historical wooden cask cellar in the middle of an impressive endowment site. Weingut am Stein Ludwig Knoll

Wine is passion, zest for life, and has accompanied the Knoll family for five generations. Since 1980 Ludwig and Sandra Knoll have been leading the winery in the midst of the famous vineyard site at the Würzburger Stein with a unique view over the wine metropolis. They cultivate wines of the highest quality on renowned steep slopes. In addition to the unique Steinkeller, the Stettener Stein, a true amphitheater of nature, has also grown into one of their areas of expertise. The vineyards are cultivated biodynamically and the grape quality grows in harmony with nature. The basis for the quality of the wines is the vineyard. A dialogue between innovation & tradition is not only expressed by the wines but also by the modern architecture.

Weingut A. Fesel

The winery A. Fesel is located in the midst of nature at the gates of Würzburg. Our family-run business offers a wide range of wines to please all tastes, cultivating 12 different grape varieties on 7 hectares of prime vineyards with various quality designations. Wine and cellar master Stefan Fesel is a second-generation owner and stands for a business philosophy committed to natural grape cultivation, gentle grape processing and distinctive high quality wines.

Weingut Reiss

This innovative family run winery is located in Würzburg-Unterdürrbach. Modern and elegant wines from classic grape varieties are presented, with a focus on their show variety of Silvaner. In addition, the "new ways" of wine ageing, such as the mash fermentation or ageing in amphorae, are a source of great interest and enthusiasm and these emotions are passed on to the customers through the wine. As well as wine tastings, guests will find an extensive program of events, such as cellar and vineyard tours, wine seminars, culinary tastings and individual tours of Würzburg an allround program that will make your visit an impressive and memorable experience. Individual visitors are warmly invited to enjoy tastings in the new vinotheque.

The Würzburger Stein – Wine Cultivation, Ecology, City from Above

Goethe had the Stein wine shipped to his home in Weimar. Hospitals and other charitable foundations are financed through this wine. Hike with a guide through the world renowned appellation and learn about wine cultivation, ecology and the history of Würzburg. The view of the city from here is simply breathtaking.

Long-Distance Bike Path Romantic Road

There can't possibly be a better way to experience Germany's best known and most popular route than by bicycle!

Würzburg is the gateway to the Romantic Road and its many highlights: There are the towns of Rothenburg with its entrance gates and fortified towers, the romantic town of Dinkelsbühl, Augsburg, the city of the Fugger, the world famous Wieskirch, the fairy-tale castle Neuschwanstein. Then there is the wildly romantic valley of the Tauber river, an ancient meteor crater near Nördlingen, as well as the impressive views of the Ammergauer Alps.

Bicycle away from traffic on designated bike paths or lightly traveled secondary roads. Ride alongside the rivers Main, Tauber, Wörnitz, and Lech. There are no mountains here or highly aerobic ascends. Cities as well as small towns along the way offer many options for nourishment and an overnight stay.

The 460 km long trail from Würzt burg to Füssen is well marked and suitable for families with children.

Terms of Accommodation and Agency Agreement

Congress · Tourismus · Würzburg, propriety operation of the city of Würzburg and hereinafter referred to as "CTW" for short, arranges accommodation for guests in commercial lodging establishments, hereinafter referred to as "host", in Würzburg and the Fränkisches Weinland (Franconian Wine Country) region according to availability. If effectively agreed, the following terms and conditions will form integral content of the accommodation/lodging contract coming into being between the guest and the host and, supplementary to the relevant legal provisions, govern the contractual relationship between the guest and host and the agency activity of CTW. For these reasons you are kindly requested to carefully read through these terms and conditions.

1. Status of CTW, applicability of these terms and conditions

1.1. CTW is the operator of the respective websites and publisher of corresponding host directories, catalogues, flyers or other print media and online appearances, provided that it is expressly designated as the publisher/operator.

1.2. Insofar as CTW arranges further services of the hosts which do not account for a significant proportion of the total value of the host's services and neither constitute an essential feature of the host's or CTW's own combination of services nor are advertised as such, CTW merely has the status of an agent for accommodation services.

1.3. CTW shall act as an agent of combined travel services, if a com-bination of travel services offered by CTW fulfils the prerequisites as defined in the statutory provisions of Section 651w of the German Civil Code. Notwithstanding CTW's statutory obligations when offering combined travel services (especially with respect to due delivery to the guest of the information forms as provided by statutory law, and due provision of security in relation to customer payments in the event that CTW collects any guest payments) and notwithstanding moreover the con-sequences provided by statutory law in case CTW should fail to ob-serve it respective statutory obligations, CTW shall, provided it duly fulfils the pre-requisites as outlined in sections 1.2 and 1.3 above. act neither as a travel package tour operator nor as the guest's contract partner in relation to any accommodation contract concluded. CTW shall thus not be liable in relation to any information provided by the host as regards prices or services nor in relation to any service deficiencies. CTW's liability as an agent for accommodation services as well as any liabilities based on statutory law, especially on the basis of compulsory provisions in relation to tele-services and business contracts that are concluded electronically shall remain unaffected.

1.4. These terms and conditions (if and as far as validly agreed upon) shall apply to the contractual relationship regarding the provision of accommodation services which have been booked on the basis of the host directories, brochures or internet advertisements as published by CTW.

1.5. The hosts reserve the right to agree with the guest on other terms and conditions of accommodation than the present ones or to make supplementary or deviating agreements to the present terms and conditions of accommodation.

2. Conclusion of contract, travel agencies, details and information in hotel guides

2.1 On making the booking, the guest offers to enter a binding contract for accommodation with the host. This offer is based on the description of the accommodation and the supplementary basic booking information (e.g. description of location, classification details, information found on the relevant website) to the extent that these are available to the guest at the time of booking.

2.2 Bookings may be made verbally, in writing, by telephone, by fax, or electronically

(E-Mail, Internet). Electronic bookings are tractual relationship was concluded, were alternative occupancy, insofar as such alternaconfirmed to the guest electronically immediately on placement.

2.3 The contract shall come into force upon the guest's receipt of the acceptance declaration (confirmation of booking) on the part of the host or CTW as its representative. It does not require any particular form, form, so even verbal or telephoned confirmation is legally binding for guest and host. As a rule, the host or CTW as its representative will additionally send a written copy of the booking confirmation to the guest in the case the booking was made verbally or by telephone. However, verbal or telephone bookings by the guest lead to a binding conclusion of the contract even if the guest does not receive the corresponding written additional copy of the booking confirmation.

2.4 S2.4. Should the host or CTW provide a special offer at the guest's request or that of the booking party, this shall, in deviation from the above provisions, constitute a binding contractual offer on the part of the host to the guest or booking party, insofar as this is not non-binding information about available accommodation and prices. In such cases, the contract shall come into force without requiring corresponding confirmation from the host or CTW if the guest or the book-ing party accepts this offer without reservations, changes or additions within a period prescribed in the offer by way of declaration, down payment, final payment or use of the accommodation

2.5 For bookings made online, the following applies to the conclusion of the contract: a) By clicking on the button "book with obligation to pay", the guest enters into a binding obligation towards the host to conclude an accommodation contract. The guest shall immediately receive an electronic confirmation of the receipt of the booking. b) Submittal of the contractual offer by clicking on the button "book with obligation to pav/ confirm chargeable booking" does not constitute a claim on the part of the guest to formation of an accommodation contract in accordance with his/her booking details. Rather, the host is free to decide whether to accept the guest's contractual offer or not. c) The contract is concluded upon receipt of the booking confirmation by the guest.

d) The contract is formed through the booking confirmation, which is shown on the screen immediately after the button "book with obligation to pay/confirm chargeable booking" has been clicked (real-time booking). The guest shall be offered the possibility to immediately store and also to print the booking confirmation. However, the binding character of the accommodation contract is not dependent on whether the guest actually uses these possibilities for storage and printing. As a rule, the host will additionally forward the guest a copy of the booking confirmation per email, email attachment, postal service or fax. However, receipt of such an additionally forwarded order confirmation is not a condition for the legal validity of the accommodation contract.

2.6 In accordance with the applicable obligations as provided by law, the guest is ewith duly informed that pursuant to the relevant legislative provisions (as stipulated in section 312g paragraph 2 sentence 1 no. 9 of the German Civil Code) CTW emphasizes the following: The guest shall have no right to object a contractual relationship concluded for the purposes of providing accommodation services, that has been concluded remotely (i.e. by way of letter, brochure, telenhone. fax. email, via text messages as well as by way of broadcasting services via radio or TV): In such cases the guest's rights are ted to the statutory provisions applicable in the event of rental services not being utilized (section 537 of the German Civil Code. In this respect, please refer also to the provisions stipulated in Section 5 hereunder) The guest does however have a right to object if the contractual relationship relating to the provision of accommodation services has been concluded outside of business premises, unless however, either one of the aforementioned constellations applies or the oral negotiations on the basis of which the con-conducted following the guest's respective request. In such cases the guest shall have no right to object.

3. Prices and services

3.1 The prices indicated in the booking (host directory, offer of the host, internet) are final prices and include statutory value added tax and all additional expenses, unless otherwise indicated with regard to such additional costs. Additional charges might be made and shown separately such as visitor's tax and fees for services billed according to consumption (e.g. electricity, gas, water, firewood) and for optional and additional services that are booked or used on location. 3.2 The services to be provided by the host are defined solely by the content of the booking confirmation in connection with the details provided about the accommodation and about the services of the host in the booking as well as any supplementary agreements specifically concluded with the guest/booking party. The guest/booking party is advised to make any additional agreements in written text.

4. Payment

4.1 The time at which down payments and final payments fall due is based on the corresponding arrangement agreed with the guest or booking party and indicated in the booking confirmation. In the absence of any such agreement, the entire price of accommodation including additional costs and services shall fall due at the end of the guest's stay and accordingly be paid to the host. 4.2 In the case of stays of more than one week, the host may bill and request payment for the days of accommodation already provided and additional services rendered (e.g. catering services not included in the accom modation price, beverages, etc. from the mini-4.3 Even if not expressly indicated in the booking confirmation, the host may, unless agreed otherwise in the individual case, request a down payment amounting to 20 percent of the total price. 4.4 Payment in foreign currencies and by collection-only checks is not possible. Payment by credit card will only be possible by arrangement or if generally offered by the host by means of displayed notice. Payment at the end of the stay may not be made by hank transfer

4.5 Should the guest fail to make an agreed down payment and/or the final payment or does not make it in full within the specified period despite a reminder from the host with a reasonable deadline - even though the host is ready and able to properly provide the contractual services – and there is no legal or contractual right of set-off or retention on the part of the guest, and if the guest is responsible for the delay in payment, the host is entitled to withdraw from the contract with the guest after a reminder with a deadline and after the deadline has expired and to charge the guest a cancellation fee in accordance with section 5 of these terms and conditions.

5 Cancellation and no-show

5.1 In the case of cancellation or no-show by the guest, the host shall remain entitled to payment of the agreed price of the stay, including the cost of board and any payments due for additional services. This does not apply if the guest has been granted a free right of cancellation by the host in individual cases and the host receives the guest's declaration of the exercise of this free right of cancellation, which does not require a specific form. within the deadline.

5.2 Within the framework of its normal business activities, the host, while not being subject to any obligation to undertake any special efforts is obligated to seek alternation ve occupation of the booked accommodation, with account being taken of the specific character of said accommodation (e.g. non smoking room, family room).

5.3 Insofar as the host is able to find alternative occupancy for the period booked by the guest, he shall have the income from such tive occupancy is not possible, deducted from his claim in accordance with section 5.1.

5.4 As per the percentage rates prescribed by law for the assessment of non-incurred expenses, the guest or booking party is obligated to pay the host the following amounts hereby taking into account any amounts to be offset in accordance with section 5.3. based in each case on the total price of the accommodation services (including all additional expenses), but without including any visitor's tax:

90%

For accommodation without board For hed and breakfast For half board

For full board 60% 5.5 The guest/booking party expressly retains the right to substantiate to the host that the cancellation costs saved by the latter are considerably higher than the above charges or that alternative use was found for the accommodation services in question. In such case the guest/booking party will then only be obligated to pay the lower amount. 5.6 We strongly recommend the conclusion of a travel cancellation insurance policy. 57 57 The notice of cancellation for all bookings must be sent directly to the host and not to CTW and, in the guest's interests, should be made in written form.

6. Arrival and departure

6.1 The guest should arrive on the agreed date by 6:00 pm at the latest without any necessity for a special agreement in this respect

6.2 The guest is obligated to notify the host – not CTW – of any delay in arrival no later than the agreed time of arrival. The guest's failure to give such notification will entitle but not oblige the host to seek other occupants for the accommodation in question. 6.3 The guest should leave the accommodation at the latest by 12:00 midday on the date of departure agreed and indicated in the booking confirmation, without any special agreement being necessary in this respect. The guest's failure to vacate the accommodation punctually will entitle the host to demand extra payment. The host reserves the right to assert further claims for damages in such instance.

7. Guest's obligations, bringing of animals, cancellation by the host

7.1 The guest is obligated to use the acmodation and its facilities and all of the com host's facilities for their intended purposes only and with care and in accordance with any rules of usage which might exist, (e.g. in connection with a swimming pool and sauna).

7.2 The guest is obligated to notify the host without delay of any defects and malfunctions and remediation thereof. Solely notifying CTW will be insufficient, and culpable failure to lodge complaint could result in any claims by the guest becoming partially or wholly invalid.

7.3 The guest may only cancel the contract in the event of significant defects or malfunctions. Before doing so, the guest shall within the framework of the notice of complaint first set the host a reasonable deadline for remediation unless such remediation is not possible, or is refused by the host, or if immediate cancellation is materially justified by a special interest of the guest which is evident to the host, or if such reasons make a continuation of the stay objectively unreasonable from the guest's point of view.

7.4 The bringing into and keeping of pets in the accommodation will only be possible if expressly agreed beforehand or provided for in the tender. Within the framework of such agreement the guest is obligated to provide true and accurate information as to type and size. Infringements against this provision can entitle the host to extraordinary cancellation of the accommodation contract.

8. Liability

8.1 The host shall be liable without limitation to the extent that

• the damage results from the breach of a substantial obligation, the fulfilment of which is a pre-requisite for the proper performance of the contract or the breach of which ieopardizes the achievement of the purpose of the contract

• the damage results from injury to life, body or health. In all other respects, the liability of the host is limited to damage caused by the host or his vicarious agents intentionally or through gross negligence.

Contracts for Guided Tours: City of Würzburg

Congress · Tourismus · Würzburg CTW) and Tour Guides Würzburg

Dear Guests,

The following terms of contract on the one hand regulate the legal relationship between Congress · Tourismus · Würzburg, a proprietary operation of the City of Würz-burg and referred to in the following as "CTW", and yourself, referred to in the following as "Customer" or, as applicable, with the person/institution booking the guided tour. On the other hand, they regulate the legal relationship between you and the tour guide arranged for by CTW. To the extent that they are effectively referred to and included therein, these Terms of Contract shall form integral content of the Contract of Service coming into force between yourself and the respective tour guide in the event of your booking. For these reasons you are kindly requested to carefully read through these terms and conditions before booking.

1. Position of CTW 1.1. CTW offers both regular group tours available to the general public and non-regular private group tours (for individual groups). a) In the case of regular group tours open to the public, CTW is the responsible provider of the tour guide services and is, therefore, the sole contractual partner of the booking guest or client of the tour guide.

b) In the case of non-regular private group tours (individual groups), CTW acts only as an intermediary of the contract between the Guest or the client of the tour and the executing tour guide.

1.2. To the extent that the following provisions of these General Terms and Conditions apply solely to the "tour guide", without expressly differentiating in this respect between regular group tours open to the public on the one hand and non-regular private group tours (individual groups) on the other, these provisions.

a) therefore, relate, in the case of regular public group tours, to CTW as the provider responsible for performance and contractual partner of the booking Guest or client of the tour guide b) in the case of non-regular private group tours (individual groups), to the tour guide as arranged by CTW in each case.

The following applies in the case of regular public group tours: Irrespective of the obligations of CTW as a provider of associated travel services (in particular, the transfer of the form required by law and execution of the protection of customer deposits in the event of collection by CTW) and the legal consequences of non-fulfilment of these legal obligations, CTW is not a tour operator, subject to any deviating express agreement in this regard.

1.5. The following applies in the case of nonregular private group tours (individual groups): CTW is not a contractual partner in the con tract that is concluded via the tour guide upon booking. In the case of such orders, CTW is, therefore, not liable for information about pri ces and services, the provision of the service itself or performance defects in connection with the tour guide. This does not apply to the extent that the tour guide is a contractually agreed service included in a package holiday or another offer where CTW is a direct con tractual partner of the guest or client. Any liability of CTW arising from the agency contract and statutory provisions, in particular, in accordance with mandatory provisions regarding telemedia and electronic commerce, nain unaffected.
