Long tradition and lots of holiday cheer

In the heart of Würzburg’s Old Town one of Germany’s most picturesque and enchanting Christmas Markets attracts thousands of visitors every year. The tradition dates back to the early 19th century and the historical market square with its Gothic chapel and abundance of Baroque architecture provide a charming Christmas card scenery. Enjoy a stroll through 140 wooden stalls and try delicious Christmas cookies and roasted almonds while sipping the traditional “Glühwein”, a famous mulled wine. Products for sale at the Christmas market include wooden toys, jewelry, teas and spices, traditional Christmas decorations, scented candles, pottery, embroideries, and hand-knit socks and gloves.

To top it off, some 40 artisans display their wares in the festively decorated courtyard of the Town Hall on all Saturdays and Sundays in Advent. The focus here is on handcrafted items that are hard to find elsewhere.
